

YACHT CLUB PERUANO

La Punta, September 1, 2018

Dear Sirs,
SAN FRANCISCO YACHT CLUB
San Francisco, California

Att. Mr. Paul Rosenlund.

Concerning: Privilege agreement with Yacht Club Peruano

Of our consideration:

This is to express our best regard and will to establish a privilege agreement between our clubs, in order to get our coasts closer for our associates benefit, creating at the same time friendship bonds, sharing experiences and nautical values.

From now we are pleased to give your associates our services in our facilities as well as the use of our courtesy boya, transportation boat and migratory advisory.

Alex Hughes, illustrious associate of our club is the carrier of this invitation and the privilege agreement document. He's also taking some presents following the nautical tradition.

Respectfully yours,

Franco Pipoli
Comodoro
Yacht Club Peruano

RECIPROCAL PRIVILEGES AGREEMENT

Reciprocal privileges among Yacht Clubs is a time honored tradition. The purpose of these privileges is to Foster and encourage communication between yacht clubs and to enable yachtsmen to call upon reciprocal clubs during their travels. Yacht Club Peruano maintains reciprocal privileges with many clubs in Perú and around the world.

With this agreement, YACHT CLUB PERUANO and

THE SAN FRANCISCO YACHT CLUB

hereby establish reciprocal privileges based on the following terms:

- I. These privileges provide an opportunity for Members in good standing with their Club to visit the Reciprocal Club. Such visit shall only on an occasional basis. Ususally no more than once per year (if you wish to visit the facilities of reciprocal club more frequently, then you should inquire about membership with that club).
- II. The protocol to visit a reciprocal club is to request a Letter of Introduction from your Club and then have it forwarded in advance of your visit to tje Reciprocal Club for confirmation.
- III. Reciprocal privileges vary by each club, but generally enable members to visit the clubhouse of Reciprocal Club.
- IV. When visiting a reciprocal Club, Members shall abide by all rules and regulations of that club, and if permitted to make any charges, settle their accounts before departure.
- V. The establishment of reciprocal privileges is often symbolized by an Exchange of bugees wich may flown at the Reciprocal Club.
